

Application for 2008-2009 Stentor staff positions

The Stentor was first published during the 1886-87 academic year and continues to serve as the students' weekly journal. The newspaper, published on Thursdays with a circulation of 1500, offers four sections: news, features, opinions and sports.

The Stentor, a member of the Illinois Collegiate Press Association, has won multiple awards in recent years at ICPA conventions. Earlier in 2008, The Stentor received first place awards for features page design, headline writing, and sports column, and a second place award for best sports photograph.
