

Application for 2009-2010 Stentor staff positions

The Stentor was first published during the 1886-87 academic year and continues to serve as the students' weekly journal. The newspaper, which publishes on Thursdays with a circulation of 1,000, offers four sections: News, Arts & Leisure, Opinions, and Sports; and is available to a worldwide audience of parents, alumni, and students studying abroad at TheStentor.com.

The Stentor, a member of the Illinois Collegiate Press Association, has won multiple awards over the past several years. These include first place for "Best Editorial" in 2005, and honorable mention for General Excellence in 2004. At the 2008 ICPA convention in Chicago, The Stentor received first place for features page design, first place for headline writing, first place for sports column, and second place for best sports photograph. The Stentor received a number of citations at the 2009 convention as well.
